

ACTION TRACKER CARD

ACTION TRACKER

Whenever PCs make an action roll, they place a character token on the action tracker. When the GM makes a move, they may choose to spend any number of the tokens currently on the action tracker. For each token they spend, they can activate an adversary on the battlefield to take an action (this could be casting a spell, making an attack, ending a temporary condition, etc).